

Youth Name _____

Saint Andrews Lutheran Church
Covenant of Conduct
Sheep and Shepherds

In order to live in community, there are some behavioral promises we must make together.

While attending Saint Andrew's youth activities, I will:

- † respect others and treat them as fellow members of the body of Christ
- † respect and appreciate the different gifts, cultures, and perspectives that each person brings to the group
- † be an active participant in all activities
- † respect the property of others
- † follow the requests of adult advisors

I will live out the above statements by:

- † being aware of my speech and how it might affect others
- † being willing to listen if someone confronts me
- † being honest
- † being accepting and welcoming of people new to the group
- † being willing to apologize when I am wrong and to forgive when I am wronged
- † being aware of when it is time to play and when it is time to work
- † being willing to talk out problems and conflicts to get them solved
- † being supportive and affirming of others in living out this covenant
- † engaging with the entire group

The leaders and volunteers of Saint Andrews youth and family ministry program will:

- † respect my individuality, voice, and questions
- † allow me a safe space to be me
- † follow all of the above statements

Non-negotiable behaviors for which I will be sent home:

- † Violent words or actions used towards another person or towards property
- † Going offsite without permission
- † Bullying

Should I break this covenant, I agree to the consequences agreed upon by the leadership team, volunteers, and the Director of Youth and Family Ministries.
